

28th DAB Investmentkongress

23rd September 2026 – Munich

13th October 2026 – Digital

The Investmentkongress 2026.

Exchange. Perspectives. Awareness.

On September 23, 2026, the Investmentkongress will once again gather the decision-makers of the leading asset management companies in Munich. As in previous years, the venue for the main in-person event is the tradition-steeped Nockherberg.

The tried-and-tested congress format combines strategic inputs with practical market presence: Top-class keynote presentations provide information on current capital market topics, while short 15-minute presentations at the marketplaces are integrated directly into the exhibition space. These presentation formats can be booked exclusively by exhibitors and allow for a targeted approach in direct contact with the audience.

Traditionally the in-person event ends with a joint visit to the Wiesn – an established background for personal conversations and sustainable networking.

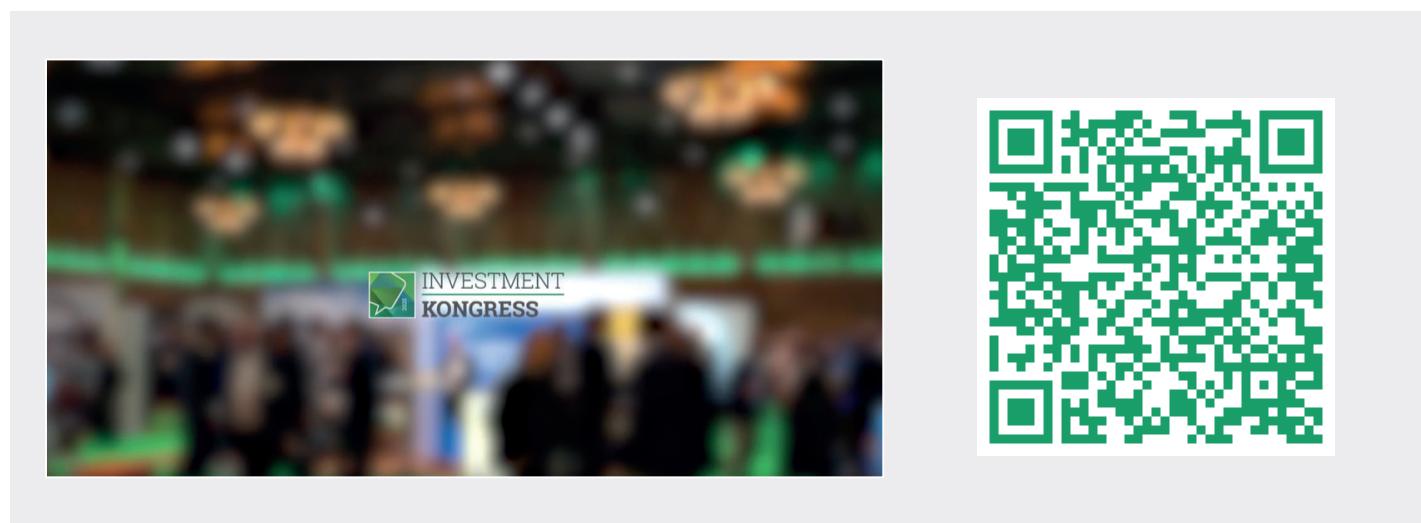

In addition to the in-person event, a second, fully virtual congress day is scheduled for October 13th 2026. The 30-minute presentation slots give exhibitors and partners the opportunity to present their expertise to an audience interested in their field. In 2025, an average of around 65 participants took part in each session.

The Investmentkongress 2026 also offers attractive sponsorship opportunities. In addition to established packages, we are happy to develop individual sponsoring solutions that are tailored precisely to your communication goals.

For the latest information on the Congress, please visit www.investmentkongress.de.

We are looking forward to a personal exchange at the Investmentkongress 2026 in Munich.
